DESCRIPTION

BACKGROUND

In a dramatic new departure, Radisson Edwardian Hotels have launched the glamorous Bijou Bar. The bar's interior design brings West End style to London's Heathrow airport with RAK Ceramics stunning Paradox porcelain floor tiles adding an atmospheric ambience to the whole venue.

RAK CERAMICS PRODUCTS USED

Paradox porcelain floor tiles with their highly contemporary semi-polished metallic finish were chosen by the contractor because of their strength and surface durability.

AWARDS ASSOCIATED WITH PROJECT

The Radisson Edwardian Group has been given a Platinum Award in the Green 500 Initiative – part of an ambitious plan to make London a greener place. The group have installed a CHP plant unit at their Heathrow hotel which will save £70,000 a year in energy costs.
